BRENTON LIPSCOMB,

Plaintiff,

v.

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, et al.,

Defendants.

Case Nos. 1:24-cv-01305-JLT-CDB
1:24-cv-01306-CDB
1:24-cv-01307-CDB
1:24-cv-01308-JLT-CDB

FINDINGS & RECOMMENDATION TO DISMISS THIS ACTION AS DUPLICATIVE
OF CASE NO. 1:24-cv-01308-JLT-CDB

(Docs. 3, 5)

Clerk of the Court to Assign District Judge
Jennifer L. Thurston

Plaintiff Brenton Lipscomb (“Plaintiff”) initiated four actions with the filing of four separate complaints and associated applications to proceed in forma pauperis on October 25, 2024. (Docs. 1, 2). See Case Numbers: 1:24-cv-01305-JLT-CDB (“Action 1305”), 1:24-cv-01306-CDB (“Action 1306”), 1:24-cv-01307-CDB (“Action 1307”), and 1:24-cv-01308-JLT-CDB (“Action 1308”). Plaintiff’s complaints in these actions allege substantially similar facts and nearly identical causes of action against related defendants. See (Doc. 1).

On October 30, 2024, the Court ordered Plaintiff to show cause why (1) all four actions should not be consolidated, and in the alternative, (2) why three of the actions (Action 1305, Action 1306, and Action 1307) should not be dismissed, with Action 1308 remaining as the operative case. Plaintiff filed a substantially identical response to the Court’s order in all four actions, in which he requests consolidation and appears to acknowledge the cases are all related to each other. (Doc. 5 at 2-3).

The undersigned, therefore, recommends dismissal of this case, allowing Action 1308 to proceed as the action encompassing the broadest set of allegations applicable to all defendants and claims.

I. APPLICABLE LAW

“Plaintiffs generally have ‘no right to maintain two separate actions involving the same subject matter at the same time in the same court and against the same defendant.’” Adams v. Cal. Dep’t of Health Servs., 487 F.3d 684, 688 (9th Cir. 2007) (quoting Walton v. Eaton Corp., 563 F.2d 66, 70 (3d Cir. 1977)), overruled on other grounds by Taylor v. Sturgell, 553 U.S. 880, 904 (2008).

“To determine whether a suit is duplicative, we borrow from the test for claim preclusion.” Adams, 487 F.3d at 688. “[T]he true test of the sufficiency of a plea of ‘other suit pending’ in another forum [i]s the legal efficacy of the first suit, when finally disposed of, as ‘the thing adjudged,’ regarding the matters at issue in the second suit.” Id. (second alteration in original) (quoting The Haytian Republic, 154 U.S. 118, 124 (1894)). “Thus, in assessing whether the second action is duplicative of the first, we examine whether the causes of action and relief sought, as well as the parties . . . to the action, are the same.” Adams, 487 F.3d at 689; see Serlin v. Arthur Andersen & Co., 3 F.3d 221, 223 (7th Cir. 1993) (“[A] suit is duplicative if the claims, parties, and available relief do not significantly differ between the two actions.”) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

“After weighing the equities of the case, the district court may exercise its discretion to dismiss a duplicative later-filed action, to stay that action pending resolution of the previously filed action, to enjoin the parties from proceeding with it, or to consolidate both actions.” Adams, 487 F.3d at 688.

II. DISCUSSION

a. Named Parties

Three of the defendants identified in Plaintiff's actions (Edwards Air Force Base, Frank Kendall, III, and Heather Wilson) are named defendants in all four actions. Action 1305 includes the aforementioned three parties plus Frances Morris; Action 1306 includes the above three plus Maurice McKoy; and Action 1307 includes the above three plus Jamason Edwards.

Importantly, Action 1308 includes all the named parties in the other three actions; that is, Edwards Air Force Base, Frank Kendall, III, Heather Wilson, Frances Morris, Maurice McKoy, and Jamason Edwards. See (Doc. 1).

b. Alleged Causes of Action

In Action 1308, Plaintiff raises seven causes of action: whistleblower retaliation pursuant to 5 U.S.C. section 2303, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act – harassment (race), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act – harassment (color), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act – harassment (sexual orientation and gender), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act – retaliation, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act – discrimination by recipient of federal financial assistance/funding, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act – sexual harassment in an employment context. See (Doc. 1).

The other three actions raise the same seven causes of action. Action 1305 (Doc. 1 at 50-55); Action 1306 (Doc. 1 at 50-56); Action 1307 (Doc. 1 at 49-55).

c. Alleged Facts

Plaintiff's four complaints are lengthy, each numbering at or around 55 pages with approximately 80 additional pages of exhibits. Upon a general review of the complaints, all four actions appear to arise from a substantially similar common set of facts. The below citations are to the complaint filed in this action.

In brief, Plaintiff appears to allege that he was hired as a supervisory financial management specialist at Edwards Air Force Base. (Doc. 1 at 10). Plaintiff moved in together with Jamason Edwards ("J. Edwards"), a co-worker, and Major Maurice McKoy, a supervisor. Id. at 12. Plaintiff and J. Edwards then moved into a rented home and began a sexual relationship, which they kept hidden from McKoy. Id. at 14-15. McKoy would visit and at times J. Edwards would

1 stay in the same room as McKoy. Id. at 16. Plaintiff and McKoy had an argument at Plaintiff's
2 home regarding Plaintiff's work performance and his "having an alliance" with other employees.
3 Id. at 17. Afterwards, McKoy revoked permission for Plaintiff to attend a training via
4 teleconference. Id. at 17-18. McKoy and J. Edwards would take flights together, with McKoy
5 covering J. Edwards' airfare; Plaintiff was reluctant to join for professional and financial reasons
6 and was then "asked/forced" to watch McKoy's dog. Id. at 20.

7 Plaintiff and J. Edwards moved to Los Angeles together. Id. They continued to hide their 8 relationship from McKoy and attempted to hide their common address, but "McKoy knew they 9 were living in the same house." At this time, Plaintiff and J. Edwards were under a situational
10 telework agreement. Id. at 21.

11 After learning of Plaintiff and J. Edwards' move to Los Angeles, McKoy attempted to 12 transition the telework agreement to a "zero tolerance" stance, but this was rejected by leadership.
13 McKoy was given approval to reduce Plaintiff's and Edwards' telework days from three a week
14 to two a week. J. Edwards began staying at McKoy's home during the weekdays and in Los 15 Angeles with Plaintiff on weekends. Id.

16 McKoy expressed frustrations with Plaintiff's intern and indicated the intern would be 17 terminated in late 2022. Id. at 22. McKoy ostracized Plaintiff from leadership meetings and 18 created an aggressive work environment. Id. at 23. McKoy began harassing the Plaintiff. Id.
19 at 25. It appears Plaintiff was in favor of hiring his intern and was directed to do so by the 20 Employee Management Relations ("EMR") office, but this was denied in strong language by 21 McKoy. Id. at 27. Plaintiff's intern was hired, as McKoy was "forced" to do so. Immediately
22 after, McKoy requested a meeting with Plaintiff where Plaintiff was told he had the option to 23 resign or accept a reassignment. Id. at 29.

24 Plaintiff was told by McKoy that J. Edwards would decide his new role. Id. at 30. Plaintiff
25 was communicating with Department of Defense Office of Inspector General ("DODIG")
26 employee Linda Webb who then attempted to initiate a sexual relationship. When Plaintiff
27 refused, she began attempting to "force a relationship" between the Plaintiff and her nephew. Id.
28 at 31-32. Plaintiff received notice of his reassignment and that he would be detailed to J.

1 Edwards. J. Edwards moved out of his and Plaintiff's home in Los Angeles. Id. at 32-33.

2 Plaintiff details his disclosure of McKoy's and J. Edwards' abuse of authority, preferential
3 treatment, and improper hiring practices to his immediate supervisor, Frances Morris, along with
4 numerous other disclosures to other individuals and the Judge Advocate General. Id. at 33-47.
5 Plaintiff was terminated on June 29, 2023. Id. at 47.

6 The Court notes there seem to be only minor variations across the four complaints and that
7 all four of Plaintiff's complaints allege a substantially similar set of facts.

8 d. Plaintiff's Response to Order to Show Cause

9 On October 30, 2024, the Court ordered Plaintiff to show cause why three of the actions
10 (Actions 1305, 1306, and 1307) should not be either (1) consolidated with Action 1308 or (2)
11 dismissed, allowing Action 1308 to proceed alone. (Doc. 3).

12 Plaintiff timely filed a response on November 20, 2024. (Doc. 5). In his response,
13 Plaintiff appears to ask the court to consolidate the cases. He asks the individuals face trial "for 14 actions in their individual capacity as well as for actions in their officer/duty capacity during 15 business hour operations." Id. at 2. Plaintiff states the cases concern "offenses relating to each 16 other." Id. at 3. Plaintiff specifically discusses Action 1308 and repeats its causes of action. Id.
17 at 5-10.

18 As the cases concern substantially the same facts arising from the same incidents
19 concerning the same parties alleging the same causes of action, and Plaintiff proffers no reasons
20 why they should remain separate or why they should be consolidated instead of dismissed, the 21 undersigned finds that the instant action is duplicative of Action 1308. Accordingly, the 22 undersigned recommends dismissal, rather than consolidation, as the appropriate course of 23 action.

1 III. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

2 The Clerk of the Court is DIRECTED to assign District Judge Jennifer L. Thurston to this
3 case.

4 Based upon the foregoing, it is HEREBY RECOMMENDED that:

- 5 1. The Court dismiss this case without leave to amend as duplicative of Case No. 1:24-
6 cv-01308-JLT-CDB; and
7 2. The Clerk of Court be DIRECTED to close this case.

9 These Findings and Recommendations will be submitted to the United States District Judge
10 assigned to this case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within 14 days after 11 being served with a copy of these Findings and Recommendations, a party may file written
12 objections with the Court. Local Rule 304(b). The document should be captioned, "Objections
13 to Magistrate Judge's Findings and Recommendations" and shall not exceed 15 pages without 14 leave of Court and good cause shown. The Court will not consider exhibits attached to the 15 Objections. To the extent a party wishes to refer to any exhibit(s), the party should reference the 16 exhibit in the record by its CM/ECF document and page number, when possible, or otherwise
17 reference the exhibit with specificity. Any pages filed in excess of the 15-page limitation may
18 be disregarded by the District Judge when reviewing these Findings and Recommendations
19 under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). A party's failure to file any objections within the specified time
20 may result in the waiver of certain rights on appeal. Wilkerson v. Wheeler, 772 F.3d 834, 839
21 (9th Cir. 2014).
